Creative life of the Kazan Conservatory: facts from experience

On the 75th anniversary of the Kazan Conservatory

Summary

Throughout its 75-year history, the Kazan Conservatory has served as a major cultural center. The creative potential of the university has been shown from the first days. The foundations of professional organization of creative work laid in the late 80's were further developed. New concert halls and additional state support became an incentive to its acceleration. In the 21st century, creative work planning provides for the development and renewal of activities taking into account modern requirements and technologies. The Conservatory today largely defines the creative image of Kazan and Tatarstan and, thus, fits into the cultural space of Russia.

Keywords: Kazan Conservatory, creative activity, international cooperation, concert life, creative center, competitions and festivals, creative groups.
